Of Local Interest.

The regular meeting of the Loyal Legion Sunday afternoon at 2.30.

The Ladies of the W. C. T. U. will give an ice cream social Friday night. Admission, 15 cents.

There will be no services at Presbyterian church Sunday morning, Rev. Mr. Chumley being called to Danville to assist in installing the new minister at Presbyterian church in that city.

Rev. Mr. Ellis, of Louisville, has been called to preach at the Baptist church and will preach his first sermon about the first of June. The engagement is for only three months, and if satisfactory to pastor and congregation, he will accept the pastorate permanently.

Since opening Athletic Park, some splendid base ball has been played with teams from neighboring towns. The Lancaster boys are up to snuff, and when you hear the familiar and melodious voice of Brice Bruce announcing, "We's gwine ter play 'em!" go out and you will see a good game.

The Rev. Mr. McCorkle of Nicholasville, who delivered the sermon to graduating class Sunday evening, also preached at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning, his sermon being one of the best ever delivered in this edifice. Our people were delighted with his discourses, and trust he will honor our town with another visit.

"Uncle Ben" is All Right.

Danville Advocate:—Mr. Ben Robinson, one of Garrard's oldest and most prominent citizens, was in the city yesterday and today, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Will Baughman, on East Main street. "Uncle" Ben is still Marksbury's leader in politics despite his advanced age, and is a past master of the art of electioneering.

Undertaker's Parlor.

Mr. J. A. Beazley has fitted up a beautiful undertakers establishment, in the Stormes block, just above the Presbyterian church, where he is ready and prepared to give the best service in his line. Being an expert in embalming, he makes this a special feature of the business. A handsome line of caskets, burial robes, etc., constantly in stock, and all orders will be attended to promptly and in the best manner.

Fish Club Notice.

The City Council having signified their willingness to grant a 20-year fishing privilege in the water works lake, a meeting is hereby called of all those interested to be held in the Council Chamber Friday night, the 20th, at 7 o'clock to perfect an organization to be known as the "Lake Placid Fishing Club," membership limited only to persons living in Lancaster. Don't forget the time, Friday night the 20th, and be there at 7 o'clock.

Lincoln's Time.

Danville Advocate:—Chairmen Jas. H. Holdam, of the Lincoln county Democratic Committee, R. S. Nichols, of Boyle, Wm. Montgomery, of Casey, and Wm. Gooch, of Garrard, met at the court house in Danville this afternoon, and after listening to arguments were unable to agree whether it was Lincoln or Boyle county's time to furnish the Senatorial candidate in this District, and by special agreement of the candidates Mr. A. D. Leavell, of Garrard, was called into conference, and it was then decided that it was Lincoln's time—the vote standing three to two.

Noble Work.

The City Council has given charge of the little park to the W. C. T. U., and the latter have made a most beautiful spot thereof. A number of flower beds have been made, the benches painted, the grass cut and the place presents a most inviting appearance. The ladies request The Record to say they did this for the benefit of the public, especially the young men, and extend a most cordial invitation to the boys to make the Park their lounging place during the hot weather. A water faucet will be placed where the grass and flowers can be watered, a hand will visit the Park daily and remove the cart loads of old paper swept on the Square from the stores, and everything done to make the spot inviting and delightful. Those who love progress and a clean town are very grateful to the W. C. T. U., which organization has done the only work in this direction.

Streets to be Sprinkled.

J. A. Beazley, manager of the water works, took a paper to the business men last week, and nearly all readily agreed to contribute toward defraying the expense of sprinkling the streets this summer. Enough signers were secured, and the work will begin in a day or so. It will be done with the fire hose, and in addition to the Public Square, water will be thrown twice a day in front of any property where the owner will pay a reasonable fee therefor. This is a great blessing to the town, as more damage has been done by dust than from any other source. The Record cannot refrain from chuckling to see the numerous benefits of the water works being put into practice. Just think of a merchant having the dust kept off his stock for only seven dollars a year!

Many Lancaster friends extend deep sympathy to Maj. Curtis F. Burnam, of Richmond, on the death of his beloved wife, who passed to her reward last week.

The young gentlemen composing the "E. S. C." will give a picnic and hay ride at the river Friday evening. Only club members will be present and a delightful time is anticipated.

A dog, supposed to have been mad, attacked T. J. Hatcher a few mornings since, causing much alarm. The dog was killed and Dr. Acton dressed the wound the dog made on Mr. H's hand. No signs of further trouble have appeared.

The Record has been highly complimented on its success and progress in printing a colored ad in last issue. This required much work, and calculations, but we are prepared to do anything in the printing line, no matter how complicated.

Changes on "Kay See."

On July 1, Mr. W. H. Anderson, present Train Master at Paris, will become General Superintendent of the K. C. Division of the L. & N. railroad, and the offices will be removed to Paris. Mr. Louis Hodd will be Superintendent of Terminals at Cincinnati, and Mr. Brent Arnold will become third Vice President of the road. It has not been decided who will succeed Mr. Anderson as Train Master at Paris.—Cynthiana Democrat.

Mr. Anderson, the new Superintendent, is one of the most popular men on the division, as well as one of the best officials. He is a progressive man, and we look for many changes and improvements.

Hon. George Gilbert Here.

Congressman G. G. Gilbert, of Shelbyville, was in town a few days since, and made The Record office a most pleasant call. Mr. Gilbert has made a splendid record in Congress, and no one ever took more pains in looking after the wants of his constituents than he has. All letters were answered promptly, and any business, no matter how trivial, was always looked after promptly. Mr. Gilbert stands upon his record, and will make several speeches in the counties of the district. He has many warm friends in Garrard.

Kennedy-Stagner.

On Thursday, the 12 inst., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Kennedy, of Richmond, their daughter, Miss Annie Laurie, was united in marriage to Mr. B. M. Stagner, of Duncannon, a prosperous and worthy young farmer. The ceremony performed by Rev. Hugh McLellan was beautiful and impressive. The attendants were Miss Katherine M. Arnold, of Hyattsville, and Frank Kennedy, brother of the bride. The gracious manner and natural attractiveness of the young bride make her a general favorite.

Chip off the Old Block.

One of best-written newspaper articles we have read is printed in the Tampa, Fla., Times, from the pen of Mr. E. L. Pearce, a son of Dr. E. H. Pearce pastor of the local Methodist church. It deals with local matters there, but is so well-worded as to be enjoyable to those unacquainted with the situation. Newspaper men, especially editors of country papers are compelled to read many articles written by people who have had an opportunity to learn and know "what's what," but not one in ten is in presentable shape, in fact what newspaper men call "decent copy" is rare indeed. Every town is chock full of men who know how to run a newspaper, and who comment on the get up of their local paper, but not one in fifty could write a little two-line personal. Such an article as that written by young Mr. Pearce is the exception and not the rule in matter contributed to newspapers.

Teachers Selected.

The Board of Trustees of the Graded School, at a meeting held Monday re-elected Prof. Mannix as principal, Miss Peyton, assistant principal, Misses Oakley, Smith, Anderson, Washburn and Henderson, teachers in the primary and high school. Mrs. Burnside was re-elected teacher of music. Miss Peyton, having accepted a position elsewhere, declined to accept. The board will probably select a young man for assistant to fill the vacancy. The school has splendid trustees, and the tax payers can rest assured that what they do is for the best. They look closely into every detail of the work, visit the school and hear both sides to all questions, and if there is any dissatisfaction with their work, we have failed to hear of it. The school has made wonderful progress during the present term, the discipline being better than ever before. The fact that there have been no dissensions is proof conclusive that the present principal and teachers are the right people in the right place, and it was wise to keep them there. The trustees give much of their time to the school's welfare, and the people certainly should appreciate their work. A synopsis of the year's work will be given in a future issue of The Record.

Capt. Boston Dillion Dead.

After a protracted illness, Captain Boston Dillion died at his residence in this city, about noon Sunday. Capt. Dillion was born in Madison county, eighty seven years ago, and resided there until breaking out of the civil war, when he entered the Union army, serving in Wolford's cavalry with gallantry and distinction. At close of the war he came to Garrard and resided here the remainder of his life. He was twice married, his second wife being a Miss Wortham, sister of Mr. Joe Wortham and Mrs. Geo. Wright, of this city, and Sim Wortham, of Stanford. Only three children survive him, Capt. W. R. Dillion, of Livingston, Mr. Ansil Dillion, of Crab Orchard, and Mrs. Wm. Jones, of Colorado. Capt. Dillion was a member of the Baptist church, and in the prime of life was a leader in the republican party of Garrard. He was elected jailer for four years. He was a man of high integrity and honor, and as brave as a lion. He was warm-hearted and always ready to do his part toward bettering the community. Funeral services were conducted at the residence by Elder F. M. Tindler, the remains being taken to Crab Orchard for interment. To his widow and children the community extend deep sympathy.

Fortunate Conductor.

Capt. Phil Price, who runs the K. C. day trains, is back on his run, after a lay off to attend to some important business. It is good news to Captain Price's many friends to know that he has recently met with good fortune. A relative in California, died last month, leaving him a large fortune. Having valuable patents on a flying machine he has been working on for some years, he will now push his invention to a successful end, soon becoming one of the richest men in America. Only a few of his most intimate friends were "next to" his secret, as his plans were kept carefully guarded.

Is this your copy of The Record?

Personal Mention.

Mr. Ike Dunn and wife, of Bryantsville, were visitors here Tuesday.

Roy Beazley, of Stanford, has been visiting his brother, J. A. Beazley.

Mr. William Burton, who has been quite sick, is reported very much better.

Mrs. R. L. Jennings, of Paint Lick, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thompson.

Mr. John Marrs, of Richmond, has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. R. H. Tomlinson.

Misses Rella and Allie Arnold have returned from a brief visit to relatives in Nicholasville.

Joe Burnside has returned from the Spencerian Business College, Louisville, for a short vacation.

Mrs. Georgia Lusk and Miss Bettie Miller are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Miller, of Knoxville, Tenn.

Mr. William Lackey, wife and little son, John, of McCreary, visited Judge R. A. Burnside and family Sunday.

Drs. J. M. Acton, J. B. Kinnaird and H. C. Herring attended the State Medical Society meeting in Lexington this week. They report a most successful meeting, and a delightful visit.

The handsome invitations to commencement exercises of Hamilton College, Lexington, contain in list of graduates the name of Miss Theo. Lillard Hemphill, of this city. Miss Hemphill has received highest marks in her studies and received much praise from her teachers. She has many admirers in Lancaster who are delighted with her success.
